Bring a Guest to MTPR 2027

It's Easier Than Ever to Bring a Guest

This year, adding a guest to your MTPR registration is simpler than ever. Whether you're registering for the first time or adding a guest to an existing registration, the process only takes a few minutes.

And with MTPR 2027 taking place at the Fairmont El San Juan Hotel, there's never been a better time to bring someone along. From resort amenities and beautiful beachfront surroundings to unforgettable social events and networking experiences, guests can enjoy everything that makes San Juan a premier destination while sharing in the MTPR experience.

We encourage attendees to take full advantage of everything the conference and resort have to offer by registering their guest early.

Guest Registration Policies

What Can Guests Attend?

Guest registrations include access to conference social events and receptions.

Guests are not permitted to attend CLE programming, conference educational sessions, or claim CLE credit.

VIP Guest Access

Guests of VIP attendees may be invited to participate in select VIP experiences and programming, subject to availability.

Additional details and RSVP information will be provided before the conference. Space at VIP functions may be limited and will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis. Early registration and timely RSVP submission are strongly encouraged.

Check-In Requirements

Guests must check in alongside the attorney associated with their registration.

To ensure smooth entry into conference activities, we encourage attendees and their guests to coordinate their arrival during posted registration hours.

Registration Review & Eligibility

All guest registrations are subject to review and approval by the MTPR team.

Guest registrations submitted with inaccurate, misleading, or incomplete information may be cancelled without refund.

Vendors, service providers, and other professionals interested in attending conference programming should inquire about Non-Attorney registration options.

Guest Wristbands

Upon check-in, guests will receive a conference wristband granting access to eligible guest programs and social events.

Guests without a wristband will not be permitted entry to guest-eligible activities. Lost wristbands will not be reissued.

Conference badges are not issued to guests. Attendee badges are required for entry into ballroom CLE sessions and other attendee-only events.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who qualifies for a Guest Registration?

Guest registrations are intended for spouses, partners, family members, and personal guests accompanying a registered attendee. Guest registrations are not intended for attorneys, vendors, consultants, or other industry professionals seeking to attend conference programming.

Can my guest attend CLE sessions?

No. Guest registrations do not provide access to CLE sessions, educational programming, or CLE credit opportunities.

Can my guest attend receptions and social events?

Yes. Guests are welcome at conference social receptions and other designated guest-eligible events.

Does my guest need to check in?

Yes. Guests must check in with the attendee associated with their registration and receive their wristband before participating in conference activities.

Will my guest receive a conference badge?

No. Guests receive a wristband rather than a conference badge.

Can my VIP guest attend VIP events?

Potentially. Guests of VIP attendees may be eligible for select VIP experiences, subject to capacity and availability. Additional details and RSVP instructions will be provided before the conference.

What happens if a VIP event reaches capacity?

Attendance at VIP guest experiences is offered on a first-come, first-served basis. Registration and RSVP submission as early as possible is recommended.

Can I add a guest after I've already registered?

Yes. Follow the instructions above under "Adding a Guest to an Existing Registration" and apply the provided guest registration discount code during checkout.

Are guest registrations refundable?

Guest registrations follow the conference's standard registration policies and terms and conditions.
